

July 1, 2016

Dear Friends and Colleagues,

It is my honor and privilege to invite you to this year's No Greater Sacrifice Liberty Award Dinner taking place on October 13, 2016 at Gotham Hall in New York. With your support, we will help provide a debt-free college education to the children of our fallen and severely wounded Service members.

I first became involved with No Greater Sacrifice in 2009 and I have seen firsthand the difference the organization is making for the families of our nation's heroes. Not only does No Greater Sacrifice cover the financial costs of college, they also provide personalized mentorship to every scholarship recipient, ensuring they are prepared to succeed throughout their pursuit of higher education.

No Greater Sacrifice is committed to keeping its overhead costs low to serve as many students as possible. 92 cents out of every dollar goes directly to students, and while No Greater Sacrifice has been able to change the lives of 85 young men and women, your contribution will help us reach many more.

For all these reasons, I am proud to support No Greater Sacrifice and serve as the dinner chair for this year's event, where we will honor:

- General Stanley McChrystal (Ret.), United States Army
- Tom Naratil, President Americas and President Wealth Management Americas, UBS
- George C.W. Gatch, CEO, Global Funds Management & Institutional, JP Morgan Asset Management

We expect the dinner to be completely sold out, so please make your plans now to ensure your attendance. It promises to be a special and impactful evening, and I look forward to seeing you there.

Regards,

Robert J. McCann
Liberty Award Dinner Chairman
